Better Business Through Reaction Management
Jon Taffer, Group Chairman, Taffer Dynamics, and Host/Producer, “Bar Rescue”
In his 30-plus years in the hospitality business, consultant Jon Taffer has rescued nearly 1,000 bars and restaurants from the brink of failure. He’s done so by employing high standards, emphasizing measurable results, and not mincing words concerning costly mistakes managers often make, so they can correct them quickly and staunch the red ink. Sounds basic, right? Then why is it so hard to do, and why do so many fail at it? Get ready for a memorable session as this author, television and podcast host, imparts his candid wisdom and frank thoughts on what it takes to run a successful business in the 21st century.

10:15am – 11:15am
Don’t Turn a Blind Eye on Local Content and Productions
While all eyes might be on the Hollywood pipeline when it comes to film content, we can’t ignore the fact local content plays an incredibly important role in the day-to-day operations and lifeblood of the theatrical industry. This session will address the myriad of ways local content is extremely relevant for the overall health of the industry.

Sponsored by Dolby Laboratories

From Glasgow to Nashville to Las Vegas - CinemaCon is proud to present the highly anticipated NEON release “Wild Rose” as its 2019 Gala Opening Night Screening. Starring as Rose-Lynn Harlan, a young Glaswegian woman longing for a life as an on the rise country singer in Nashville, Jessie Buckley gives a breakthrough performance that proves the Irish actress is well on her way to global stardom. Featuring music by country greats Bonnie Raitt, Wynona Judd, and Kacey Musgraves - Buckley’s own voice shines through with original songs co-written with screenwriter Nicole Taylor and Mary Steenburgen.

Following a rapturous screening at the Toronto International Film Festival, Variety raved: “Wild Rose tells a richly stirring human story ... it lets you experience what the glory of country music really is: an art torn straight from life itself. Wild Rose, the closest thing to a sleeper I’ve seen at Toronto this year, is a happy-sad drama of starstruck fever that lifts you up and sweeps you along, touching you down in a puddle of well-earned tears.” The film is directed by Tom Harper and co-stars Sophie Okonedo and Julie Walters. In theaters June 14.

WARNER BROS. PICTURES PRESENTS AN EXCLUSIVE SCREENING OF “BLINDED BY THE LIGHT”
(Doors open 8:30pm)

From writer/director/producer Gurinder Chadha (“Bend It Like Beckham”) comes the inspirational drama “Blinded by the Light,” set to the music and lyrics of Bruce Springsteen’s timeless songs. “Blinded by the Light” tells the story of Javed (Viveik Kaira), a British teen of Pakistani descent, growing up in the town of Luton, England, in 1987. Amidst the racial and economic turmoil of the times, he writes poetry as a means to escape the intolerance of his hometown and the inflexibility of his traditional father. But when a classmate introduces him to the music of “the Boss,” Javed sees parallels to his working-class life in Springsteen’s powerful lyrics. As Javed discovers a cathartic outlet for his own pent-up dreams, he also begins to find the courage to express himself in his own unique voice. Based on Sarfraz Manzoor’s acclaimed memoir Greetings from Bury Park, “Blinded by the Light” is a joyful story of courage, love, hope, family and the unique ability of music to lift the human spirit. “Blinded by the Light” stars Viveik Kaira, Hayley Atwell, Rob Brydon, Kulvinder Ghir, Nell Williams, Dean-Charles Chapman, and Aaron Phagura.

BREAKFAST PROGRAM - THE STRAIGHT TRUTH: DOCUMENTARIES MEAN BUSINESS, BIG BUSINESS

(Note: Program starts promptly at 8:00am)

Overview of the Documentary Scene

Presented by Paul Dergarabedian, Senior Media Analyst, Comscore

Moderator: Steve Bunnell, VP, Film/Content Buying and Licensing, Alamo Drafthouse

Panel Members:
Lisa Bunnell, President, Distribution, Focus Features
Elissa Federoff, SVP, Distribution, NEON
Robert J. Lenihan, President, U.S. Programming, AMC Theatres
Matt Tynauer, Director/Producer, “Where’s My Roy Cohn?”

It is a historic time for documentaries. Individual box office records were set and moviegoing audiences worldwide opened their respective arms to an incredibly diverse and inclusive offering of films that were fascinating, death-defying, thrilling, touching and packed with emotion. Documentaries offer up the truth and have their own mesmerizing and unique way of involving you into their world of factual storytelling. In addition to big box office, documentaries have proven long legs and great second week holds aren’t just for the mainstream films released throughout the year. So, if you haven’t been paying attention, now’s the perfect time and this special program will prove the point.

AMAZON STUDIOS, MINDY KALING, AND EMMA THOMPSON INVITE YOU TO AN EXCLUSIVE SCREENING OF “LATE NIGHT”

Direct from its critical and audience acclaim at the 2019 Sundance Film Festival, CinemaCon is pleased to be screening “Late Night” at this year’s show. Katherine Newbury (Emma Thompson) is a pioneer and legendary host on the late-night talk-show circuit. When she’s accused of being a “woman who hates women,” she puts affirmative action on the to-do list, and - presto! - Molly (Mindy Kaling) is hired as the one woman in Katherine’s all-male writers’ room. But Molly might be too little too late, as the formidable Katherine also faces the reality of low ratings and a network that wants to replace her. Molly, wanting to prove she’s not simply a diversity hire who’s disrupting the comfort of the brotherhood, is determined to help Katherine by revitalizing her show and career – and possible effect even bigger change at the same time.

NAC SEMINAR - HOW IS THE EVOLVING CONVENTIONAL CONCESSION MENU AFFECTING THE OVERALL PROFITABILITY OF THE CINEMA?

Presented by:
Radesh Palakurthi, Ph.D., MBA; Professor and Dean, I.H.G. Chair of Excellence, The Kemmons Wilson School of Hospitality and Resort Management, University of Memphis

This study presents the results of an online survey of moviegoers in the U.S. on their tendency to upgrade their concession purchases as newer options become available (such as: extended menus, specialty items and dine-in opportunities.) The focus of the research is the assessment of the impact of cannibalization of traditional concession items on theatre profitability as some moviegoers transition to upgraded menu options as they become available. The influence of the socio-demographic characteristics of moviegoers, such as age, gender, and income will also be presented.
